OUT OF THE ASHES BURSARY

The Out of the Ashes (OOTA) bursary was initiated in 2007 as a prevention initiative by Leann Kopytko, a youth counsellor working in the Raven Program with Day One Society; and was the brainchild of Ron Kopytko, Leann's late husband, who shared her passion for helping youth who are impacted by substance use, affecting lifestyle, relationships, work, or school performance.

The bursary is intended to help people in their recovery journey to reach academic and/or vocational goals.

The vision of the OOTA bursary is to provide educational support to a young person in Kamloops with a minimum of one year recovery time.

It began with a donation from six independent businesspeople in Kamloops. The Society's Board of Directors matched the donation and the first bursary of $2500 was awarded in 2008. Chosen recipients are supported to continue to strive towards their personal and professional goals.

Since inception, over $100,000.00 of OOTA Bursaries have been awarded.

“The support of the community ... is overwhelming; to know I am supported by my community and to see the compassion of my fellow members of society is truly heartwarming. Thanks to the ongoing support, emotional and financial, I am able to work towards my goal of becoming an RN.”

(Andrea H. – Out of the Ashes Bursary recipient)
